

Bioenergy Healing Workshop: October 19 & 20, 2024

Register today to learn the hands-on Bioelectric Healing technique, also known as Bioenergy healing, from Ellen Lewinberg. As a Bioenergy Therapist, Ellen has been practicing and teaching hands-on healing worldwide since 2009.

Over two days, you will gain the practical skills to harness the energy surrounding us. This knowledge will empower you to facilitate changes in people's bioelectric energy systems. This system of bioenergy healing is designed to help you tap into the body's healing mechanisms, promoting change in long-standing psychological, physical, and spiritual issues.

Workshop schedule

Saturday, Oct 19, 9.00 AM to 4.30 PM

- Introducing energy work.
- Learning techniques.
- Practicing techniques.

Sunday, Oct 20, 9.00 AM to 4.30 PM

- Learning how to apply the techniques to any condition or dis-ease.
- Patterns to apply to all conditions.
- Practicing the patterns.

What people say about Ellen's workshops:

- "Thank you for sharing your experience and beauty. Also for modeling your flexibility in applying the techniques." ~ BK
- "Enjoyed the seminar – appreciated your pace and clarity." ~RS
- "Surpassed my expectations very beneficial." ~ LV
- "I thought it was very organized, stimulating and professional etc." ~ JH
- "Enjoyed how you formatted the seminar, the presentation, practice sessions, review of the written information was great. I look forward to meeting up again." ~ NR

What you will learn.

You will learn a series of practical techniques to facilitate healing and patterns that lead to a change in a wide variety of dis-eases, including arthritis, diabetes, heart disease, MS, and cancer.

Through participation in hands-on practice, you will also learn:

- How to offer healing energy to family, friends, and clients.
- How to use specific techniques to give energy and take away energy.
- How to improve the immune system.
- How to protect and strengthen your energy system.
- How to follow symptoms rather than diagnose.

Who should attend?

Lay people, medical practitioners, massage therapists, and anyone who wants to learn about effecting change with energy.

Registration fee: $375 per person + HST = $423.25.

The fee includes handouts describing techniques and treatment patterns. Meals are on your own. This is a small group workshop, so we often dine together.
