HEALING TRANSFORMATION

HEALING TRANSFORMATION WORKSHOP

September 28-30, 2018

Come learn this unique hands-on Bioelectric Healing technique (also known as Bioenergy healing) from Ellen Lewinberg, a Bioenergy Therapist who has been practicing and teaching hands-on healing around the world since 2009.

In this three-day workshop you will learn how to use the energy that surrounds us to facilitate changes in people's bioelectric energy systems, so that they may begin the process of healing on physical, psychological and spiritual levels. This system of bioenergy healing helps practitioners to access the body's own healing mechanisms and helps to promote change in long-standing psychological and physical issues.

What you will learn

You will learn a series of effective techniques to facilitate healing and a variety of patterns that lead to change in a wide variety of dis-eases including arthritis, diabetes, heart disease, MS, cancer and many more.

Through participation in hands-on practice, you will learn:

- How to offer healing energy to family, friends and clients
- How to use specific techniques to give energy and take away energy (when there is pain for example)
- How to improve the immune system
- How to protect and strengthen your own energy system
- How to follow symptoms rather than diagnose.

Who should attend

Lay people, medical practitioners, massage therapists; anyone who wants to learn about effecting change with energy.

Registration fee: $400 per person + HST

Fee includes handouts describing techniques and treatment patterns. Meals are on your own.
