

Bioenergy Healing Workshop October 29 - 31, 2021

Learn how to use a person's bioelectric energy systems to help them heal their body, mind, and spirit naturally. Join me for this 3-day virtual workshop to discover your powerful healing ability.

Bioenergy healing uses the body's own healing mechanisms. As a trained practitioner, you can use this energy to promote healing of physical, psychological, and spiritual issues.

By the end of this three-day workshop, you will know how to use the energy that surrounds us to facilitate changes in people's bioelectric energy systems. With this knowledge, you can help yourself and others heal.
